

Things to remember:

- Injections – Hepatitis, Tetanus. Consult your doctor. No malaria needed, except when traveling to the eastern parts of South Africa, like Kruger National Park. Contact VOTG for help with vaccines – 1 800 268 8684 www.vaccinesonthego.com
- Register your guns and valuable equipment (Cameras, Binoculars) with your local Customs Authority
US citizens fill in Form 4457,
Australian Citizens must have Restricted Goods Permit
(Max. 2 guns, and no semi or automatic guns) Keep registration with you on the plane.
- All clients bringing rifles must fill in form SAPS 520, but do not sign it. Only sign it in front of the Police Officer at Johannesburg Int'l Airport when claiming your guns.
- Payment Method: Wire Transfer, Credit Card (Visa & MasterCard, 4% comm.) or AMEX 7% comm, or Cash (NO MORE CHECKS)
- Notify your bank and credit card company that you'll be traveling abroad so they won't suspect foreign transactions made with your credit card.
- Know your credit card's pin number, if you want to withdraw cash from an ATM.
- Travel insurance. Try www.medjetassistance.com or www.sportsmanstravelinsurance.com
- Insurance on guns and equipment. See www.siai.net or www.tic.com
- Passport. Check your expiration date. You need two blank consecutive pages in it for RSA stamps. No Visa needed for US Citizens.
- Your arrival/departure point is Johannesburg
- Plane tickets.
US Clients - Two airlines fly daily direct to South Africa,
South African Airways – www.flysaa.com – from JFK or Washington Dulles (IAD)
Delta Airlines – www.delta.com – from Atlanta (ATL)

Australian Clients – Try Qantas Airways - www.qantas.com or South African Airways - www.flysaa.com

- Guns and ammo. 60 rounds per gun would be enough. No Semi or Automatic rifles. No rifles of the same caliber per person.
- Pack ammo separate from guns, in original factory boxes, and some airlines also require a “locked metal container”, like a Cash Box from Wal-Mart. Pack it so that it can be reached easily, you will have to take it out for inspection. Total ammo weight not more than 11 lbs. 3 boxes per caliber is save.
- If you that don't want to stand in line to register your guns in South Africa, I highly recommend that you get in touch with Hunters Permits Africa; they are a South African based company that will handle all your import papers for your guns. Contact Adele @ hunterspermitsafrica@hotmail.co.za or go to her website www.hunterspermitsafrica.co.za
- NOTE: Clients travelling with South African Airways....
You NEED to SIGN for your rifles at the FIREARMS SECURITY'S OFFICE, this office is just behind baggage carousel number 8 and next to the liquor store.
If you are travelling with any other airline for instance Delta, KLM, Air France, Virgin Atlantic, British Airways or Lufthansa you don't have to sign at the security office at the baggage claim area, you can proceed directly to the general meeting area, where we will meet you.
- Binoculars
- Cameras – Remember spare batteries. We do have converters in every room.
- Toiletries
- Personal Medicine & Prescriptions
- Hunting boots – 2 pairs, well worn.

- Hunting clothes – 2 pairs. Cammo's are allowed in South Africa. If you like to wear shorts those zip-off pants are perfect. We do laundry everyday....
- Casual wear for around the campfire.
- 2 Jackets. The best is to put on layers and take them off when it heat up during the day. Mornings and evenings cool.

Temperatures

Mornings cold - 10°C / 50°F

Mid-day 23°C / 74°F

Nights cold

- Gloves
- A book or two to read on the plane or at the lodge.
- Mark your bags with 2 tags and put a ribbon or tape on it, so you can recognize it at the baggage claim carousel
- We have WiFi in camp and also cellphone reception.
If you consider renting a phone at airport or adding "Roaming" to your service, make sure you can receive MTN, a local cellphone service.
- Have your Outfitters and /or PH's address, Invitation and Information Forms with you on the plane. You might need it to fill in the immigration form upon arrival in South Africa.
